DAVID MONTGOMERY
General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer

David Montgomery's first association with the Phillies was as a young fan growing up in Philadelphia, attending hundreds of games at Connie Mack Stadium. He realized every baseball fan's dream when he started working for the club in 1971 just in time for the opening of the new Veterans Stadium.

After graduating with an MBA from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, Montgomery began his career in the Phillies Sales Office selling season and group tickets. He advanced to positions as marketing director and then director of sales before becoming executive vice president after the 1981 season.

He was elevated to chief operating officer in 1992 and succeeded Bill Giles as general partner, president and chief executive officer on June 20, 1997. In 1994, Montgomery was designated as co-general partner and acquired an ownership interest in the team.

Montgomery's association with the Phillies from Connie Mack to Veterans Stadium has now extended to Citizens Bank Park, the Phillies' new major league ballpark which opened to very positive reviews in April of 2004. Under his leadership and watchful eye, the Phillies constructed new state-of-the-art facilities in both Philadelphia and Clearwater, Florida, with the 2004 opening of Bright House Networks Field, the home of Phillies Spring Training and the Clearwater Threshers.

During his 35 years in the game, Montgomery has been active in a wide range of areas for Major League Baseball. He is presently vice chair of the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Enterprises (formerly MLB Properties). He also serves on MLB's Schedule Committee and is a member of MLB's Labor Policy Committee.

Locally, Montgomery is an active alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania where he served as a trustee. He is the current chair of the policy board of WXPN Radio -- 88.5FM, the university's member-supported radio station. He also serves on the university's Board of Overseers of the Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts.

In addition to his Penn activities, Montgomery serves on the boards of Need in Deed, a non-profit service-learning organization working with children in Philadelphia public schools, and the Philadelphia Sports Congress. He is a past board chairman of both the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education and the Woodlynde School, a private K-12 school in Strafford, PA.

In 2005, Montgomery served as a co-chair of the Philadelphia Anti-Defamation League's Torch of Liberty Award dinner, and as a co-chair of the 15th Anniversary Celebration of Philadelphia Futures, a program that helps inner-city students prepare for and complete college.

Under Montgomery's leadership, the Phillies continue to broaden their community outreach, supporting hundreds of charities and non-profit groups through contributions and other assistance provided by Phillies Charities, Inc., the club's charitable arm. Two keystones of the Phillies' charitable endeavors are the Phillies Phestival held each season in support of the ALS Association - Greater Philadelphia Chapter, and the annual Phillies Holiday Dinner, prepared and served by front office staff, at the Bethesda Project's "Our Brother's Place," a homeless facility in North Philadelphia.

The ball club is also very active on the education front with the sponsorship of "Be A Phanatic About Reading" and Phillies Phundamentals, youth programs aimed at combining fun and learning with baseball. In addition, Philadelphia's boys and girls are learning about the game and playing baseball through the Phillies-sponsored RBI and Rookie League programs.

Montgomery was born June 26, 1946, and grew up in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia. He is a graduate of the William Penn Charter School (1964) where he received the Alumni Award of Merit in 2005 and the University of Pennsylvania (1968) where he majored in history. He received his MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in the fall of 1970.

David and his wife Lyn make their home in the Wyndmoor section of Philadelphia. They have three children, Harry, Sam and Susa, and one granddaughter, Elizabeth.

OWNERSHIP

The Phillies is a limited partnership. David Montgomery is the general partner, with complete management authority. There are four limited partners:

- ★ Double Play, Inc., affiliated with fifth generation Philadelphia-based family businesses. John S. Middleton is its chairman.
- ★ Giles Limited Partnership, Bill Giles' family partnership.

None of the partners owns as much as 50 percent of the partnership.

EXECUTIVES

BILL GILES
Chairman

Baseball has been Bill Giles' life. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was president and general manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and president of the National League (1951-69). Bill's mother died when he was nine so he spent long hours and a lot of days with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati. Bill's first job in baseball came when he was "around 14" years of age. It wasn't a glamorous position, as he did all kinds of odds and ends in the Cincinnati Reds' Public Relations Department.

Giles has held numerous positions with two National League teams, Houston and Philadelphia. He's served on numerous committees in baseball and has been one of Philadelphia's most visible community activists. Currently chairman of the Phillies, Bill was appointed honorary National League president early in the 2001 season, the first father-son combination at that level in baseball history. Bill represents the NL at the All-Star Game and post-season play. The appointment by Commissioner Bud Selig is a testimony of Bill's stature in the game.

Following graduation from Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U.S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career took on a full-time status in 1959 when he was named GM of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati minor league team. From there, he moved to the expansion Houston Colt 45s. While in Houston, Giles served as traveling secretary, publicity director, director of public relations and promotions and vice president. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as vice president, business operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to executive vice president.

When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group that purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained president of the club until June 20, 1997, when he moved up to chairman. In the summer of 2001, Giles was nominated to serve as honorary president of the National League.

Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: chairman emeritus of the board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; past president of the Boy Scouts of America and the Corporate Alliance for Drug Education; on the board of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce and the Police Athletic League; and a member of the Union League, Rotary Club and the visitors boards of the Temple University Medical School and Temple University Journalism School.

He has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America; Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993), Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996), Vision of Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc., and the American Heart Association's Man of the Year.

Giles, who was born in Rochester, NY, on September 7, 1934, resides in Villanova, PA, with his wife Nancy. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Christopher. Michael is married to Nanette. Joe and his wife Paula have four children, Caroline, Dana, Molly and Max. Chris and his wife Amy have two children, Eliza and Warren.

JERRY CLOTHIER
Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer

Jerry Clothier joined the Phillies in 1982 and currently serves as senior vice president/CFO. He previously worked for Price Waterhouse in their management consulting practice and was admitted to the firm's partnership in 1981.

Born in Claymont, DE, on October 1, 1945, Jerry grew up in Swarthmore, PA. He graduated from Swarthmore High School in 1963 and the University of Delaware in 1967, receiving a BA degree in accounting. He then served three years in the U.S. Navy as a supply officer from 1967 to 1970 and later attended the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, receiving his MBA in finance in 1973.

Jerry serves as a trustee to the Pension Committee of the Major League Baseball Players Benefit Plan, as a member of the University of Delaware Visiting Committee on Athletics and as a member of the Free Library of Philadelphia Board of Trustees.

Jerry lives in the West Mount Airy section of Philadelphia with his wife, Sherry. They have two daughters, Amy and Kelly, and one granddaughter, Nora.

EXECUTIVES

David Buck was named vice president, advertising sales in March 1998.

Born May 15, 1964 in Abington, PA, he graduated from Lafayette College in 1986 with a BA degree in history.

David joined the Phillies in June 1986 as an intern in the sales office. He has held positions of sales representative, manager of corporate marketing and director of advertising sales, prior to his current position.

He is a member of the board of directors of the Please Touch Museum, a nationally renowned children's museum, and of Hobbs & Towne, Inc., an executive search firm. He also serves on the executive committee of the Broad Axe Community Association.

David, his wife Nancy, son Andrew and daughter Katie live in Broad Axe, PA.

RICHARD DEATS
Vice President, Ticket Sales

From 1969 to 1974, Richard taught and coached at Germantown Academy. He joined the Phillies in August 1974 as a ticket office representative. In January 1976, Richard was promoted to group sales director and in October 1982, sales director. He was promoted to director of sales and ticket operations in October 1987, a title he held until his current position. He also served as the design contact person for Citizens Bank Park.

Richard and his wife Nina live in Center City Philadelphia and have two daughters, Lisa and Wendy.

LARRY SHENK
Vice President, Public Relations

Larry "The Baron" Shenk is the dean of major league PR directors, entering his 43rd season with the Phillies. He joined the organization in October 1963 as director of public relations and was named vice president, public relations, in 1981.

He is a graduate of Myerstown High School (1956) and Millersville State University (1961), where he received a BS degree in elementary education.

Following college, Shenk began his career as a general reporter with the Lebanon (PA) Daily News in 1961. He joined the sports staff of the Wilmington (DE) News-Journal in January 1963 and moved to the Phils 10 months later.

He received the Robert O. 2005 REVIEW

2005 TEAM NOTES

JIMMY ROLLIN' & ROLLIN' & ROLLIN'

Jimmy Rollins set a Phillies record and put his name in the major league record books with a 36-game hit streak, the 9th-longest in MLB history (5th-longest in NL history) and the longest ever by any full-time shortstop. According to Elias Sports Bureau, Rollins' streak can continue into the 2006 season for a "career" streak, but his "single-season" streak stands at 36 games.

AWARDS ABOUND

Ryan Howard won the Jackie Robinson Award as the NL Rookie of the Year for 2005 from the BBWAA. Howard led all NL rookies with 22 home runs and a .567 slugging percentage. His home run total was the most by a Phillies rookie since 1971, when Willie Montanez hit 30. Howard became the fourth Phillie in club history to win the award, following Jack Sanford (1957), Dick Allen (1964) and Scott Rolen (1997).

Collectively, the Phillies won five NL Player of the Week awards, one NL Player of the Month award and one NL Rookie of the Month award. Pat Burrell (twice), Bobby Abreu, Chase Utley and Jimmy Rollins all won the Player of the Week award, becoming the first Phillies foursome to win the honor since 1991 and third overall (1980). Burrell became the fourth Phillie in club history to win the award more than once in one season, joining Greg Luzinski in 1977 (twice), Pete Rose in 1979 (twice) and Von Hayes in 1986 (3 times).

May's Player of the Month honor went to Abreu, who hit .396 (38-96) with 11 home runs, 30 RBI and a .792 slugging percentage. Ryan Howard secured the Phillies' first Rookie of the Month award when he became the first rookie in major league history to hit 10 home runs in September.

GLOVE IS ALL AROUND

2005 marked the 10th time in the last 11 years that the Phillies finished in the top five for fielding (1998 - 9th). Their .985 fielding % was 4th-best in the National League and their 90 errors were tied for 3rd-fewest. The Phillies collected 36 outfield assists, which was the 3rd-highest total among all major league teams, behind only Atlanta (41) and Minnesota (37).

Right fielder Bobby Abreu became the first Phillies outfielder in 23 years to win a Rawlings Gold Glove Award. Not since Garry Maddox won the award in 1982 had a Phillies outfielder won. Abreu and Maddox, an 8-time winner with the Phils, are the only outfielders in club history to win the award.

FOR THE RECORD

From July 8 through the end of the season, the Phillies posted a 45-30 (.600) record, which was the 2nd-best winning % in the National League, trailing only Houston (47-30, .610). The Phils' 45 wins tied with St. Louis for the 2nd-most in the league over that span.

Against the three division winners - Atlanta (10-9), St. Louis (4-2) and San Diego (6-0) - the Phillies went a combined 20-11 (.645). The Phillies have won 10 consecutive games over the Padres, dating to 2004. Against the Braves, the Phillies won the season series for only the second time in their last 14 years (10-9 in 2003). For the fourth straight season, the Phillies had a .500 or better record against the Cardinals (15-9, 2002-05).

NL RANKINGS

The Phillies finished second in the National League with 807 runs scored. It was their highest ranking since leading the NL in runs in 1993 with 877. Since finishing last in the NL in runs in 2000, the Phillies' ranking has improved every year: 2001 (9th), 2002 (8th), 2003 (5th), 2004 (3rd) and 2005 (2nd).

In other categories, the Phillies led the NL in walks (639), intentional walks (76) and on-base percentage (.348), ranked second in pitches per plate appearance (3.84), tied for third in hits (1,494), finished fourth in batting average (.270), slugging percentage (.423) and total bases (2,347) and grounded into the second-fewest double plays (107), despite leading the league in GIDP situations (1,272).

HISTORIC HOMESTAND

From May 31 through June 12, the Phillies went 12-1 against the Giants, Diamondbacks, Rangers and Brewers on a 13-game homestand, making it one of the most successful homestands in franchise history. Their 12 wins were the 2nd-most they'd ever had on one homestand (14-2, July 14-24, 1955) and their .923 winning % was the best of any homestand of at least nine games (8-0 once, 7-0 three times). During the homestand, the Phillies hit .309 (133-431) with 20 doubles, five triples, 21 home runs, a .524 slugging % and 89 runs (6.8 runs/game). The pitching staff posted a 4.31 ERA (56 ER, 117.0 IP).

2005 TEAM NOTES

LATE-INNING THUNDER

On their final multi-city road trip of the season, the Phillies went 6-3 against Florida (2-1), Atlanta (2-1) and Cincinnati (2-1), getting four of the six wins in their final at-bat.

- 9/17 at FLA: Trailing 2-0 in the top of the 9th inning, the Phillies scored 10 runs in the inning off Dontrelle Willis, Todd Jones and Ron Villone. It was just the second time in club history that the Phils scored 10 runs in the 9th inning and first since July 4, 1891 at CLE (Game 1 of DH). Phillies won, 10-2.

- 9/21 at ATL: After giving up two leads in the game, the Phillies were tied 6-6 with the Braves in the 10th inning until Ryan Howard - who had come into the game as a pinch-hitter in the 8th inning - launched a 2-0 pitch into the left-field stands for a game-winning grand slam. It was Howard's first career home run against a left-handed pitcher (John Foster). Phillies won, 10-6.

- 9/22 at ATL: Locked in a scoreless tie in the 9th inning, the Phillies scored four two-out runs in the top of the inning off starter Tim Hudson. All four runs came on pinch-hits. In back-to-back at-bats, Michael Tucker had an RBI single and Shane Victorino hit his first career home run. Phillies won, 4-0.

- 9/23 at CIN: Despite taking a 5-1 lead into the 5th inning, the Phillies entered the 9th inning trailing 10-6. However, Chase Utley hit a 3-run home run to make it a one-run game and - following two strikeouts - Ryan Howard walked and hometown boy David Bell hit a 2-out, 2-run homer to give the Phillies a one-run lead. Phillies won, 11-10.

Overall, the Phillies scored 27 runs in their final at-bats on the 9-game road trip.

THREE AMIGOS

For the first time in 73 years (and fifth time in club history), the Phillies had three players with 100 RBI each. Pat Burrell (117), Chase Utley (105) and Bobby Abreu (102) became the first Phillies trio since 1932 to accomplish the feat. That year, Don Hurst (143), Chuck Klein (137) and Pinky Whitney (124) combined for 404 RBI. The other years were 1929, 1895 and 1894.

Additionally, Burrell (T-2nd) and Utley (T-8th) became the first pair of Phillies to finish in the NL top 10 for RBI since 1992, when Darren Daulton (1st) and Dave Hollins (T-7th) did it.

WHAT A STEAL

The Phillies led the National League and finished second in the majors with an 81.1 stolen base % (116-for-143), behind only Texas (81.7%, 67-for-82). They finished the season stealing 24 bases in 25 attempts (96%). The club's 116 stolen bases was the 2nd-highest total in the NL (Mets - 153). For just the third time in the last 26 years, the Phillies had four players with at least 15 steals each: Jimmy Rollins (41), Bobby Abreu (31), Kenny Lofton (22) and Chase Utley (16).

ROAD WARRIORS

The Phillies finished at 42-39 (.519) on the road this season, marking the first time that the club had back-to-back winning seasons on the road since the 1979-80 seasons. However, their 86 wins on the road the last two seasons are the most over a 2-year span since the 1976-77 seasons, when the club won a combined 89 road games.

A GRAND YEAR

The Phillies tied their franchise record by hitting eight grand slams in 2005. The NL pennant-winning 1993 team also hit eight. Ryan Howard tied for the NL rookie lead with two grand slams, both coming in tie games, one in the 9th inning and one in the 10th. Two Phillies veterans, David Bell and Ramon Martinez, each hit their first career grand slam. Prior to Bell's slam, he had the longest streak by an active player without hitting one (126 AB with the bases loaded over 11 seasons).

Bobby Abreu led the NL with three slams, bringing his career total to six. He became the first Phillie to hit three in a season since Gene Freese in 1959 and fell one short of the club single-season record of four, set by Vince DiMaggio in 1945. All six of Abreu's slams have come as a Phillie, which puts him in a tie for 2nd place on the club's all-time list with Willie Jones, Chuck Klein and Cy Williams. Abreu needs one more to tie Hall of Famer Mike Schmidt for the most in Phillies history.

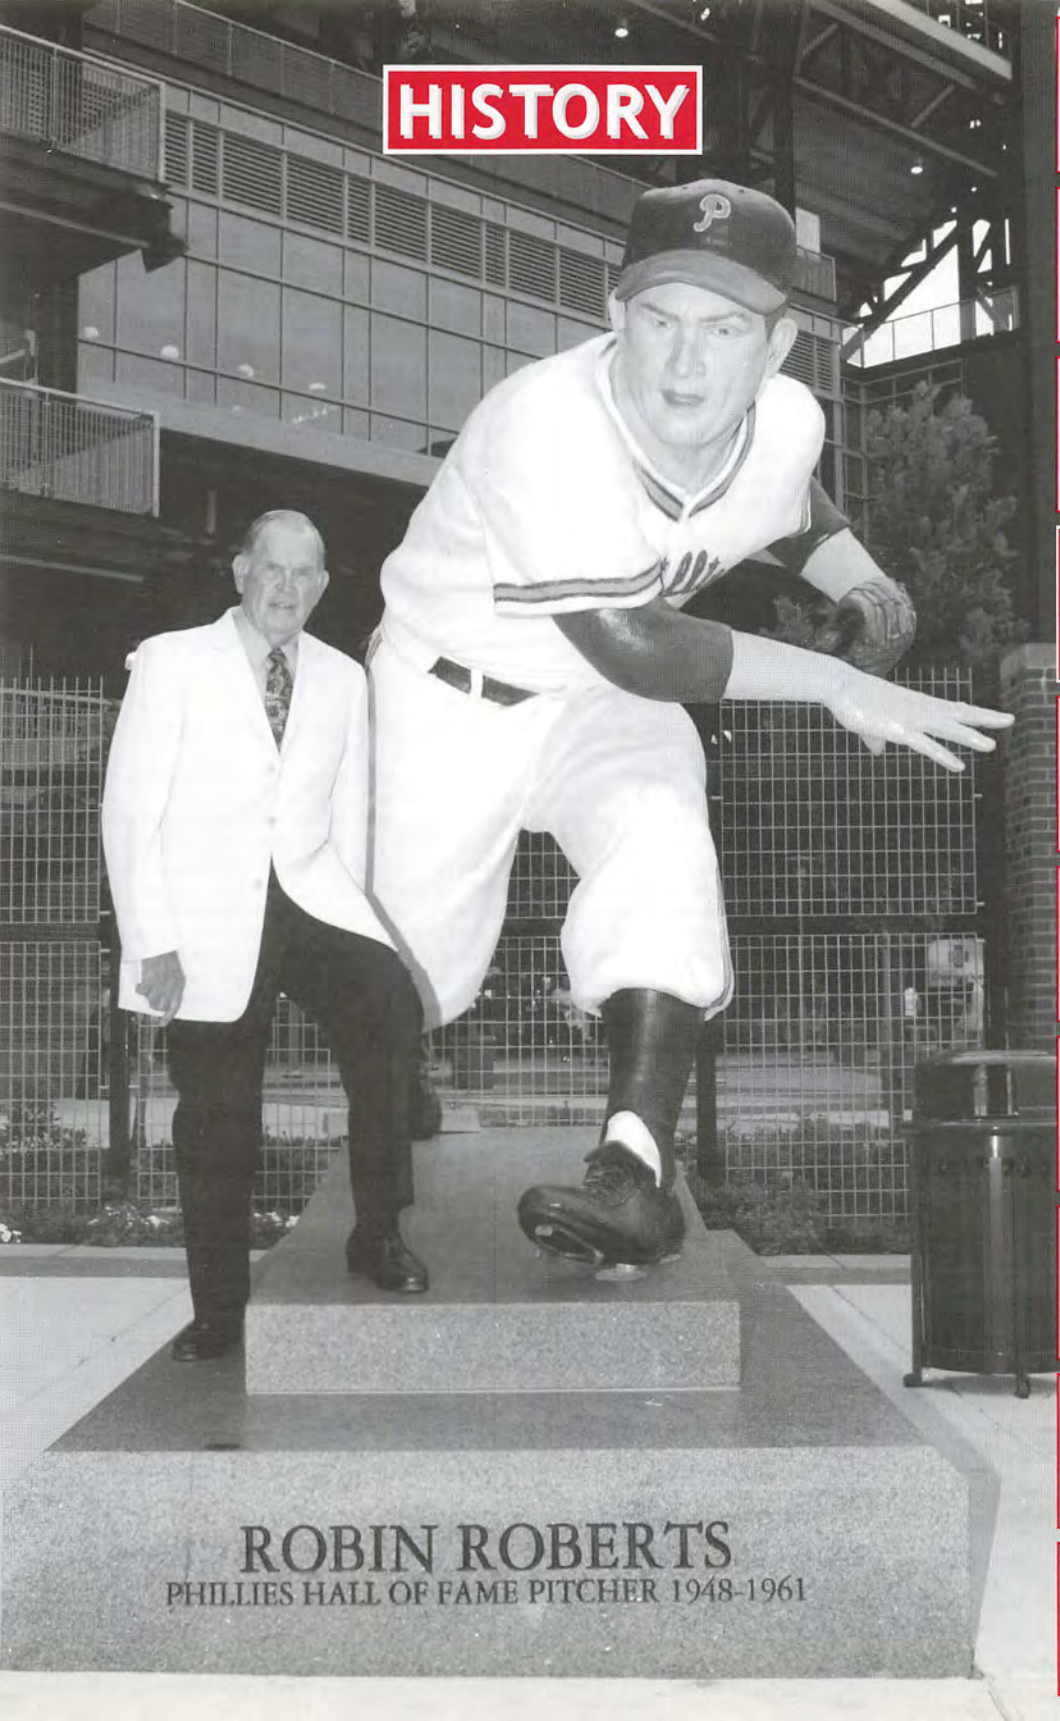
HISTORY



PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

While the Cincinnati Red Stockings of 1869 are recognized as the first all-salaried team, Philadelphia's earliest team, the Athletics, followed soon after in 1870. The next year, the National Association was formed and the Athletics joined that league.

When the Association disbanded in 1876, several of the stronger teams formed the National League, as it is still known today. The charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals, Louisville Grays and the Philadelphia Athletics.

Alfred Reach

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5, before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until 1883. Following the 1882 NL season, Alfred J. Reach, a former player and Philadelphia sporting goods founder along with attorney Col. John I. Rogers, purchased the Worcester (MA) franchise and moved it to Philadelphia. During their final year in the NL, the Worcester club was known as the Brown Stockings.

Starting a ball club from scratch, the new owners named the team "Phillies," a takeoff on the team's geographic roots, "Philly." The Phillies are the oldest, continuous, one-name, one-city franchise in all of professional sports.

None of the players from the Worcester team were part of the sale. The first Phillies roster was made up of ex-minor league players and players from other NL teams. The team finished last, 17-81-1. Total attendance was a reported 55,992.

FIRST GAME

History shows the Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

Pat Moran

It was the start of a tradition in which 1,780 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 111 million spectators have attended games in the city.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

The Phillies had to share the Philadelphia baseball scene when the American League was formed in 1901. One of the eight teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack.

The Athletics enjoyed more success than the Phillies and thus were more popular. The A's won six pennants in their first 15 years while the Phillies could muster just one.

That first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games.

While the A's had a strong run in the 1930s (three pennants, including two straight World Championships in 1929-30), the Phillies floundered. Outfielder Chuck Klein led an awesome attack but an awful pitching staff kept the Phillies from winning.

Baker Bowl began to deteriorate physically when some wooden bleachers gave way in 1927, forcing the Phillies to play a few games at Shibe Park (home of the A's). Finally, after 51 years at their stadium, the Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park on July 4, 1938, splitting a doubleheader with Boston, a 10-5 loss and a 10-2 win.

While the A's remained stable under the Shibe family, ownership of the Phillies seemed to change constantly. From 1903 to 1943, the club had ten different owners.

CARPENTER ERA BEGINS

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington (DE) bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but then usage began to drop off in the following years. The Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system.

The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team nicknamed the Whiz Kids won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Robin Roberts won 20 games that season, the first of six straight 20-win seasons. Center fielder Richie Ashburn started a streak of hitting over .300 for seven straight years, including two batting titles. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four straight games.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

The A's, meanwhile, began to slide. After finishing last in 1954, their 11th eighth-place finish in 23 seasons, the A's were sold and moved to Kansas City. Once again, Philadelphia was a one-team baseball town.

Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's owner/manager in 1953. But it's worth noting that as early as 1953, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened with the Phillies hosting the Montreal Expos on April 10, 1971.

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as President in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they signed free agent Pete Rose.

Under Manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, October 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

CARPENTER FAMILY SELLS

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, executive vice president under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to the World Series for the fourth time by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

From generation to generation, fans' heroes change. Players such as Alexander, Klein, Roberts, Ashburn, Carlton and Schmidt will always be remembered, but new heroes emerged from the 1993 team. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season. Lenny Dykstra was second in the MVP race; Terry Mulholland, John Kruk, Darren Daulton and Dave Hollins were All-Stars, but this was a total team effort.

This team didn't have one nickname such as the Whiz Kids or Wheeze Kids. They had many names because they were a group of athletes who became Phillies through shrewd moves by General Manager Lee Thomas.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Their spring training neighbors, the Toronto Blue Jays, were the opponents. Jim Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic.

A very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

Ten years later, the Phillies family said goodbye to Veterans Stadium through a season-long series of "Field of Memories" events, which culminated with an emotional closing ceremony on September 28, 2003, featuring dozens of current and former Phils.

In 2004, the Phillies moved into their new home, Citizens Bank Park, a state-of-the-art, grass and dirt ballpark which will be the site of many memories to come.

Phillies baseball is more than wins and losses. It involves people.

People who were Hall of Famers during the early years of the franchise . . . Harry Wright, Ed Delahanty and Sam Thompson.

People who were MVP winners . . . Klein, Jim Konstanty and Schmidt.

People who won Cy Young Awards, starting with Carlton's four and followed by John Denny and Steve Bedrosian.

People who were Rookie of the Year winners . . . Jack Sanford, Dick Allen, Scott Rolen and Ryan Howard.

People who reached fans, first on the airwaves, and later on television . . . Gene Kelly, By Saam, Ashburn, Bill Campbell, Harry Kalas, Andy Musser and Chris Wheeler.

Oh yes. There's one more important figure in Phillies history . . . Phillie Phanatic, the big green furry creature who made its debut as the team's mascot on April 25, 1978. As with the 123-year-old baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a tradition.

ALL-TIME ROSTER

Includes all players who have participated in one or more official National League games with the Phillies from 1883-2005...a total of 1,780 players. The most common names in Phillies history have been Miller (14), Johnson (11), Smith (10) and Jones (9).

RICHIE ASHBURN SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Established in 1998 in honor of the memory of Richie Ashburn, who spent nearly 50 years with the Phillies, the award is given annually to a member of the Phillies organization who has demonstrated the same loyalty, dedication and passion for the game as the award's namesake.

1998 - Pete Cera: A long-time employee who was with the Phillies from 1938 through 1998. He was a minor league traveling secretary, clubhouse manager, trainer and closed his outstanding career as assistant clubhouse manager in the major leagues.

1999 - Paul Owens: With the Phillies from 1955 until his death in 2003. Served as minor league manager, scout, farm director, player development director, general manager (1980 World Champions), major league manager (1983 NL Champions), assistant to the president and senior advisor to the general manager.

2000 - Ray Krise: First began working in the Phillies ticket office in 1951. Three years later he was named assistant ticket manager. He became ticket manager in 1962, a position he held until semi-retirement in 1986.

2001 - Eddie Ferenz: Joined the Phillies in 1966 as the public address announcer at Connie Mack Stadium. In October 1969, he became the team's traveling secretary, a position he held for 30 years.

2002 - Maje McDonnell: Joined the Phillies in 1947 and was a member of the Whiz Kids coaching staff in 1950. He's also served as a coach, scout and goodwill ambassador and currently works in the team's Community Relations Department.

2003 - Larry Shenk: Began his career with the Phillies in October 1963 as publicity director. As vice president of public relations, "The Baron" oversees the media relations, community relations and creative services staffs, and was an instrumental part of the Field of Memories events at Veterans Stadium in 2003.

2004 - Christine Long: A tireless and dedicated employee who joined the Phillies in 1971 as secretary to the director of promotions. As director of entertainment, she has orchestrated pre-game events at Veterans Stadium and Citizens Bank Park with precision clockwork to entertain millions of fans.

2005 - Mike DiMuzio: Began his Phillies career on Opening Day of Veterans Stadium in 1971 as a member of the junior ground crew while in high school, the start of his lifelong affection for the Vet. Eleven years later, he became director, stadium operations, a position he carried into Citizens Bank Park.

BILL GILES AND LARRY ROJAS AWARDS

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: Bill Giles and Larry Rojas.

Giles and Rojas share a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies organization.

Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was president and general partner until 1997 when he became chairman.

Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball with the Phillies. He has also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Greg Luzinski received the award in 1978 and Garry Maddox in 1986. Other past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

WALL OF FAME

The tradition of honoring alumni of both the Phillies and the Philadelphia Athletics began in 1978 at Veterans Stadium in a 200 Level display originally called the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame. Former Phillies continue to be honored at Citizens Bank Park in the Wall of Fame display located in the Memory Lane section of Ashburn Alley. The Philadelphia Zoo is the sponsor of Memory Lane and the Wall of Fame.

Phillies players with five or more years of service are eligible. In addition, position players require a minimum of 700 games, while pitchers need a minimum of 180 games to be eligible. Managers and coaches need four or more years of service.

All candidates must be retired for three years before they can be eligible for the 20-man ballot. Consideration is given to longevity, ability, contributions to the Phillies and baseball, character, plus special achievements.

REMEMBERING THE A'S

From 1978 through the final year of the Vet, 2003, members of the A's were also selected yearly. The A's were a member of the American League in Philadelphia from 1901 through the 1954 season when the franchise was moved to Kansas City.

A total of 25 former A's were part of the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame, starting with Connie Mack, their long-time manager/owner who was inducted posthumously in 1978.

A large statue of Connie Mack once stood at Connie Mack Stadium on the south side of Lehigh Avenue. During the 1971 inaugural season at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies relocated the statue to the corner of Broad Street and Pattison Avenue. The Phillies moved it again during the final construction stages of Citizens Bank Park in March of 2004.

Mack's statue is located on the west side of Citizens Bank Way. Names of the 25 A's players who were honored at the Vet's Hall of Fame display have been added to Mack's statue so that fans will forever remember the A's.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster and National League President, has been presented annually since 1978. Each award recipient is presented with a certificate during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Long-time Phillies broadcaster By Saam received the award in 1990 and was joined in 2002 by his former broadcast partner, Harry Kalas.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Phillies came into the National League in 1883, having moved from Worcester, Mass., where they were the Brown Stockings. They have been known as the Phillies ever since, the longest-running team name in pro sports. Although the club was known as the Blue Jays in 1944 and 1945, the name was never officially changed from the Phillies.

WPSG-UPN 57 begins its eighth season with the Phils this year. They will broadcast three Grapefruit League games and 44 games during the regular season. UPN 57's sister station, CBS3, will carry the season opener on April 3.

Of the 162 Phillies games, 154 will be broadcast locally, with seven other games being picked up nationally by FOX. The Phils have also been selected for ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball on May 7, with the potential of three additional appearances in the second half of the season.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

AT BAT IN OUR COMMUNITY

The Phillies organization takes great pride in giving back to the community. Off the field, the Phillies have been a team to count on for decades through their efforts of reaching out to those in need.

Phillies Charities, Inc. serves as the fundraising arm of the Phillies organization and donates to dozens of non-profit organizations each year. In 2005, Phillies Charities made a donation of $634,000 to the ALS Association of Philadelphia, which is the club's primary charity. Since adopting ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) in 1984, the Phillies and Phillies Charities have raised over $8.0 million for ALS research and patient services. Also, Phillies Charities raised an additional $180,000 in 2004, most of which was donated through its Discretionary Fund to local, non-profit organizations.

Among the groups that benefitted from the Phillies and Phillies Charities are the American Heart Association, Philadelphia Stars Negro Leagues Memorial Fund, Children's Hospital, Children's Miracle Network, Boy Scouts of America, the Junior Baseball Federation, PAL, Boys and Girls Clubs, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Philadelphia Futures, Special Olympics, Spanish-Speaking Council of Philadelphia and Philadelphia Reads.

The Phillies are proud of their rich history of player and staff community involvement over the years. Jimmy Rollins was named the 2005 winner of the Phillies Community Service Award for his contributions to the community last season. Additionally, Bobby Abreu, Pat Burrell, Geoff Geary, Mike Lieberthal, Ryan Madson, Chase Utley and Randy Wolf were among the Phillies who donated time and money to a variety of charities.

Not to be overlooked are the players' wives, who also volunteer their time and effort to raise dollars for various charities. In 2005, the wives helped raise over $70,000 for several worthy causes including Camp No Worries, Easter Seals and the Boys and Girls Clubs.

Phillies front office employees also annually give of their time, money and effort in several ways. In addition to volunteering at the annual Phillies Phestival for ALS and helping to cook and serve a holiday dinner for the homeless each year, in 2005 the staff collected donations at the ballpark gates for Hurricane Katrina victims.

Education and literacy are at the forefront of the Phillies' community efforts. "Phillies Phundamentals" is an after-school program started by the club in January 2001 which runs year-round in several inner-city recreation centers. The program, which targets at-risk children, uses baseball concepts to make learning fun for kids. Additionally, children from the program are brought to a Phillies game and get the opportunity to meet a player. Ryan Madson serves as Chairman of the program. In the fall of 2004, the Phillies started the popular "Be A Phanatic About Reading" program, which reaches thousands of elementary students in Philadelphia public schools.

The Phillies annually support many education-based programs, including "Breaking Barriers," the Philadelphia Free Library Reading Program, the Philadelphia School District reading program and the Multiple Sclerosis READaTHON. Also, the "Phillies Harmony Club," which was started in January 2003, provides recreational and educational activities for physically and mentally disabled children and adults.

For the past 12 years, former Phillies pitcher Dickie Noles has been an invaluable member of the Phillies organization, speaking annually to thousands of school-aged children on the dangers of drugs and alcohol and the importance of education. Noles, a certified drug and alcohol counselor, visits dozens of schools each year.

The Phillies are also committed to developing and teaching youth in the Philadelphia area the game of baseball. Rookie and RBI Leagues are designed not only to encourage inner-city children (from ages 6-18) to play baseball, but also to teach them the value of teamwork and sportsmanship. Combined, the programs involve more than 7,000 boys and girls yearly, making it the largest RBI and Rookie League program in the country. In addition, the Phillies also initiated and host three local amateur baseball tournaments. The Carpenter Cup is a tournament designed to give exposure to the top tri-state area high school baseball players while the Liberty Bell Classic is an annual Division I college tournament. The Giles Cup, started in 2001, is another college tournament for Division II schools.

Jimmy Rollins was the 2005 winner of the fifth annual Phillies Community Service Award for his outstanding contributions to the community. The presentation was made by former Phillies center fielder Garry Maddox.

2006 MEDIA INFORMATION

BALLPARK ENTRANCE
All media should enter Citizens Bank Park at the Staff & Media Entrance located on Darien Street (east side of the ballpark).

CLUBHOUSES
Both clubhouses are on the Service Level (visiting, third base side; Phillies, first base side). The Service Level is one level below street level (Main Concourse). Shortly after entering the Staff & Media Entrance, there is a stairway on the right side that accesses the Service Level. Or, see ELEVATOR.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM
The Media Interview Room is also on the Service Level located behind home plate between the two clubhouses. Press conferences, as well as the manager's post-game media conference, will be held in this room.

PRESS BOX
The Press Box, including broadcast booths, Press Dining Room, Media Relations Workroom and library is located on the Hall of Fame Club Level behind home plate.

Some seats in the three-row Press Box are permanently assigned. Check the seating diagram posted daily in the Press Box area. Radio and TV media members occupy the first base end of the Press Box; print media the home plate end. Please keep in mind the Press Box is a working area, not a spectator location. Children and friends are prohibited.

ELEVATOR
An elevator dedicated to the media is located behind home plate. After entering the ballpark at the Staff & Media Entrance, turn left on the Main Concourse and walk toward home plate. Look for the "Media Only" sign on the Main Concourse. This elevator will access the Service Level (clubhouses, Media Interview Room, field) and Press Box (Level 2).

STAIRWAY
A stairway is adjacent to the media elevator and can be used to access all levels.

FIELD ACCESS
Access to the field for all media is through a field level entrance adjacent to the visiting team's third base dugout. This runway can be accessed via a hallway located between the elevator and Media Interview Room on the Service Level. The field and dugouts will be cleared of all non-uniformed personnel 45 minutes prior to game time. Phillies rules prohibit children (15 or under); MLB rules prohibit friends. We thank you for your cooperation.

Please note: Media is asked to avoid standing on the grass.

PHOTO WORKROOM
The Photo Workroom is located on the Service Level behind home plate in the hallway that leads to the third base field entrance. Still photographers have field level positions at the outfield end of both the third base and first base dugouts.

SMOKING
Smoking is prohibited in the entire Press Box area including broadcast booths, the Press Dining Room and hallways. Smoking is permitted in designated areas only. Ask Phillies personnel for the smoking area nearest to the Press Box.

MEDIA RELATIONS WORKROOM
Located behind the broadcast booths is a Media Relations Workroom that contains a fax machine, copier and supplies, plus a workstation for the visiting PR representative. All media notes will be reproduced in this room pregame. A complete baseball library providing numerous publications for research purposes is located adjacent to the Workroom. See a Media Relations representative for access to the Media Relations Workroom and library. Please keep in mind the Media Relations Workroom is to be used for reference purposes only.

CREDENTIALS
Working press credentials plus Baseball Writers Association of America credentials are required in order to gain access to the ballpark and other locations (field, clubhouses, Media Interview Room, Press Box and Press Dining Room).

LOST CREDENTIALS
Those members of the media who lose a Phillies credential will be asked to make a $25.00 donation to Phillies Charities, Inc., prior to being issued a new credential.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS
Both clubhouses are open from 3:30 p.m. to 6:15 p.m. (for 7:05 p.m. games) in accordance with Major League Baseball regulations. The Phillies clubhouse is closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice. For day games, the clubhouse is also closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice and/or 45 minutes prior to game time. Media needing interviews when the clubhouse is not open should make arrangements with a Media Relations representative.

Members of the media are welcome when the clubhouses are open. Please keep in mind the clubhouse is open for media business purposes, not for lounging or socialization. Both teams appreciate your cooperation.

Cell phones: According to a Major League Baseball directive, members of the media must have cell phones turned off upon entering the clubhouse.

PHONE/INTERNET
There is an ample supply of complimentary high-speed lines available in the Press Box as well as in the Photo Workroom. If needed, ethernet cables are available to purchase on-site for $10 (cash only) at each home game. There is also an ample supply of pool phones available in the Press Box. If you would like to purchase your own dedicated private line in the Press Box, analog lines are available to purchase for an annual fee of $150.00 per line. The Phillies' Press Box will not be equipped for wireless access for the 2006 season.

PRESS DINING ROOM
Located behind the Press Box, the Press Dining Room opens one and a half hours prior to game time. Food will be served until 30 minutes after the start of the game. The meal price is $10.00. During the game and post-game, the beverage area will be open. Children and friends are prohibited.

RULES OF INTEREST

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m. it will be considered a night game. Twi-night doubleheaders shall be considered two night games.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 1/2 or 5 innings). A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins. Rule 4.11 (d) . . . A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

-The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

-The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEAR OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

QUALIFYING MARKS

Batting Championship: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances. However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at-bats, then that player shall be awarded the championship.

Pitching Championship: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

Fielding Championship: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

Rookie: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;

(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and

(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or

(b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

No more than one save may be credited in each game.

Consecutive-Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Waivers: Major league waivers must be secured for all major league trades from August 1st until the day after the regular season concludes. No waivers are required to trade a major league player at any other time.

RAIN RULES

The right to postpone the playing of a game is vested in the home club with the exception of the final series between two clubs beginning on or after June 1, at which time the responsibility shifts to the Umpire-in-Chief. Once a game has started, the Umpire-in-Chief has sole authority to determine if a game should be suspended, when it can be resumed or if it should be terminated because of bad weather or unfit playing conditions. The Official Playing Rules provide that when a game has been temporarily suspended, umpires must wait at least 30 minutes before calling the game.

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average: Divide at-bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

Slugging Percentage: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

On-Base Percentage: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at-bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifices).

Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

Citizens Bank
Not your typical bank.®

Baseball isn't just about numbers.

Banking doesn't have to be either.

Numbers, figures, and percentage points are a big part of baseball. But what keeps you coming back to the ballpark isn't the numbers. It's the players, the faces, and the personalities that make Phillies baseball so great.

At Citizens Bank, we know it's all about people. That's why we're so happy to be the Official Bank of the Phillies. And it's why you'll always get a warm "hello" when you enter your local Philadelphia branches. It's just the way we do business. And it's winning people over every day.
